ANNEX A - Logistic information for TP#76 meeting

The meeting venue is located in Seoul, and many of the city's best-known attractions are easily accessible by subway or taxi. Visitors may enjoy Gyeongbokgung Palace, the largest of Seoul's five grand palaces; Bukchon Hanok Village, known for its traditional Korean houses; Myeong-dong, one of Seoul's best-known shopping districts; and N Seoul Tower, a landmark offering panoramic views over the city. Since these major attractions are well connected by Seoul's public transportation network, they can be visited conveniently before or after the meeting.
